John VanAsdale Joins Business Development for McCownGordon Construction

KANSAS CITY, MO., August 5, 2009 — John VanAsdale joins the McCownGordon team as a business development associate. His responsibilities include general corporate development and expanding existing core business. VanAsdale will focus on building client relationships, establishing a thorough network and leading responses to qualification and proposal requests.

VanAsdale's business development experience includes more than 15 years for various regional and national general contracting firms. Prior to business development, VanAsdale began his career in architecture where he gained significant knowledge of the technical aspects of the industry. He has a unique, strategic perspective, which will highly benefit the McCownGordon team.
